“ *I love you Gram, you are one of the funniest people I've ever met. Your home was never boring and filled with love. You always treated me like your own granddaughter and I am forever grateful for you. Love you so much, missing you

“ *My condolences and prayers to the family. Fay was one of the most intelligent, professional staff I met at Wayne County that was the “same” person everyday. She always got a laugh out of me with her quote, “shut the front door.”
Rest In Peace.*

“ As elementary school kids, Fay and I road the same school bus. Winter coats, mittens and woollen scarves sprinkled with snowflakes, are cherished memories.

“ Fay was one of my mentors. We met when she was in Escanaba. She was encouraging and often provided me with great insight. I am a better person thanks to her no-nonsense approach to telling me like it is.
I will greatly miss her but I am extremely grateful for the time we shared.

“Fay was a great sister in law and friend. We did many things over the years: concerts, dinners, , vacations and other fun things. My favorite of all were the many, many times we would all get together and play games and cards.

I'm forever grateful and blessed to have had her in my life.

There was a connection the moment we met. We made the most of the time she was in Escanaba and made enough memories to last a lifetime. Sending love and hugs to all her family. Donna and George Becker.

PS

To my wonderful friend Fay. We had such great times. The dances in junior high. Football and basketball games in high school. Our trip to Florida in 1967. Having you introduce me to my husband Joe of 52 years. Sharing stories when we had our babies together. Our trip to Whampwes Lake with Joanne. All the lunches we had at Olive Garden with Joey. And staying on the phone for two hours and just talking about everyday lives. You always made me laugh and brought joy to my life. My whole family loves you. You always called my Steven your boy. I know how much you love Mark, Holly, Julie, and Samantha. Not only are they going to miss you but all the people that you knew are going to have a hole in their hearts. I love you very much, Fay.
