“ I was so sad to hear the news of Aunt Fee's passing. I have many wonderful fond memories of her. She was one of the most remarkable women that I am grateful to have crossed paths in my life. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to Sharon, Mark, Kevin and their families. I know she will be missed. She will always be dear in my heart. I know she will rest in peace.

“ We were so sadden to hear the news of Aunt Fifi passing away. My dad had many fond memories of her from the old neighborhood where his grandparents, aunts and Uncle Frank helped to raise him. Little Frankie, as they all referred to him, is sure to have a bowl of black jelly beans ready for Aunt Fifi. I never learned the story behind it but I know he sent her black jelly beans on Easter. Thank you Tracey for sharing about the dancing. I knew she loved to dance from my dad's story's, but I never knew she taught ballroom dancing. We will not be able to come over for the funeral but our thoughts and prayers are with you all as you go through this difficult time. Love, Debbie Story

“ In addition to being an avid sports fan in her older years, Grandma Fee was an avid dance fan and dancer in her younger years. I was a young girl and would follow her feet while we danced to every music and dance show, from Dick Clark to Lawrence Welk, broadcast on a little TV in her living room. She taught ballroom dancing at Fred Astaire School of Dance. For many years, she and her sisters and lady friends would go to Vegas every year to see Sinatra. I'm sure she was singing in the crowd as loud as could be :)
