Frances passed away at the age of 83 in Myrtle Beach South Carolina with her friend Tammie at her side.

Cherished aunt of many nieces and nephews.

Truly wonderful friends of Tammie and Dean Rhodes.

In Frances's early years she loved going up north to the cabin with her husband Ted.

She gave 30 years of service to our veterans by serving in the ladies auxiliary in both post 165 and the moose club. Served as a past president of her beloved P.L.A.V post 165 in Warren MI and served proudly beside her husband Ted. Frances enjoyed working in her Rose garden and listening to music. She enjoyed going on boat cruises. Every morning she would watch Mass on TV then another favorite was Dr. Quinn. Frances was a loving person and cared about family and friends she will be dearly missed.
