“ Mary & Regina so sorry to hear about your dads passing. He's with your mom now, together again. I just saw the obituary this morning and wish I would have seen it earlier so I could have visited you all at the funeral home. Just seeing the picture of your dad's face brought back all kinds of memories of our families living next door to each other for like 35 years or so. One funny thing is how whenever I am talking about food preparation, recipes and great Polish food I talk about the foods the your father made and I got to try in my life. He is remembered by me as a kind gentle hearted man and how he would do something or make a joke, get me laughing. I remember sitting on your porch step with him & your mom and of course Mitzy too. I love the birthday video with him. RIP Mr. Sajewski.

“ We loved the Grandfather so much! Loved to hear his stories of coming here from Europe and the jobs he did, especially working in the bakery. We so loved his perogies. He was so full of wisdom and such a good natured man. We feel very blessed to have known him, he added so much to our individual stories here on this beautiful earth. We know he is with the Angels in Heaven now. Right where he deserves to be. Such a sweet and lovely soul. Mike and Teri McFarlan
