“ I never met you Gasper but I felt like I had as I am friends with your granddaughter Nicole. Nicole is a beautiful human being and my work bestie! When she would sit and visit with you at the hospital she would send me photos so I would know she was okay as I was always checking in on the two of you and the family. You were always smiling, and I could see you were a man with a beautiful soul! God Bless all your family and friends. May their memories with you give them great joy, happiness and peace! .Sending prayers, Leah Mitchell

“ Uncle Vi was always happy, always had that smile on his face at family get togethers. We all loved watches him & Auntie Mary dance they were always the stars on the dance floor. He & my Mom always had that special bond she would always refer to him as Honey Boy a name from their childhood. He will be missed.
Love, Sandy

“ Dear Cindy, Michael and Jeff,
Ray and I send our deepest condolences on the passing of Dad. He will fondly be remembered as a fun and happy man who romanced your mom, our beloved Aunt Mary, with dates where they enjoyed dancing! I was their flower girl and I truly do remember their wedding day! They were such a beautiful couple! Love, Diane and Ray Hess

“ Uncle Cass and I had a special relationship. From time I was born until 7 years old we lived in the same house. I was a very poor eater and uncle Cass would bribe me to finish meals. Then when we moved to east Detroit grandma/grandpa and uncle Cass moved next door so until I was 12 we saw each other daily, and he always had a way of making me laugh. He will be missed but the memories will live with us. That is the way a life should be lived and remembered. (Ps I learned to eat to well if you see me now)
