“ The death of a loved one is a very emotional time; therefore, I hope you find comfort in knowing that Jehovah God knows the pain you are going through since he had to watch the death of his only son. He soon promises us at Isa. 25:8 that death will be swallow up death forever.

“ My Brother,

Paul was my older brother. He loved everyone, worried about everyone and helped when you needed him the most.

I could not sit at the table with Paul. One day he had decided to make me laugh so hard that I had milk coming out of my nose. Needless to say we could not sit by each other at the table again.

He was my daughter Megan's godfather. He would always say, " She looks like you and acts like you." I would laugh and say, " that is a good thing." He would laugh, little did he know we were both as stubborn as him.

I will never forget Paul and what he did for my family. We sadly learned that my husband's plane had crashed the night of August 16, 1987. Paul was there immediately with my brother-in-law John. I will never be able to Thank him enough for all the help he was to my family. He was there for years to help support us through that difficult time in our lives.

Paul and Theresa's love for each other was amazing. They were there with each other through good times and bad times. Never leaving the others side. Theresa was quiet in the beginning years. She learned in the later years to give it back to my brother.

As for Tracey, Collette and Jackie, Paul could not have been more proud to be their father. He always had that sparkle in his eyes when he talked about them. We all have been there with our teenagers, sometimes the sparkle was half there and he was ready to lose it as a parent. We all reassured each other, this too shall pass...

When it came to his grandchildren, he was the proudest grandpa in the world. I was very happy to see his joy when finally it was a BOY!!! Surrounded by girls he felt he needed some male influence around. He loved you all dearly.

Paul I will miss you. I know you had your demons and you fought them proudly yourself. You were the best big brother I could have ever had.

You will never be forgotten,

Love Linda
