

George Roger DeCraemer

January 22, 1929 - March 11, 2018

Beloved husband of the late Joyce DeCraemer.

Loving father of Chellyn, Mary, Chris, Mark, Anita, and Steven.

Cherished grandfather of Scott, Jeremy, and Trevor Lowran.

Treasured great-grandfather of Clara Lowran.

George spent a career as a metal model maker with Fisher Body at the Warren Tech Center. He also enjoyed an astounding 75 year hobby of working at a number of race tracks across the entire state starting as a 13-year old at Motor City Speedway and ending last year with USA Demolition. A lifelong resident of Warren, he enjoyed travel, which included 120 trips to Las Vegas. George had an energy and commitment to family and friends that will be missed by all.

Interment at Sts. Peter & Paul Cemetery in Ruth, MI 48470, to be held at a later date.

“ I also enjoyed the friendship of Joyce and George. A fun and interesting man who was always caring to everyone he met. May he rest in peace and if there are casinos in heaven, he has already hit the jackpot. 😭💕 Ginger McAvoy

“ George we will never forget you, Your stories of working in the pits at Nascar, and growing up on a farm were not enough, you left us to soon and wanting more. Your gentle nature and kindness to my Mother will never be forgotten. I will never forget watching you play the slots in Vegas, and I really won't forget the last kiss you gave me and the sweet goodbye words. This last picture of us is so perfect it was taken on Fremont Street, where you wanted to watch the light show. Till we meet again Mark and Karen Johnson.....
