“ I always loved chatting with George and Helen -- they were truly some of the nicest people I have ever met, as is everyone I have met in their family. I am saddened to hear about the passing of George. Helen, you and the rest of your family will be in my thoughts!

“ Dear John I surely enjoyed your company on Virginia Dr in Warren. I was sad to see you leave the neighborhood...and it was so nice that you came to say goodbye to all of us. Loved you for all the goodness within you. You had some hard times in life....but you had such a great faith and that pulled you along. Patty and I send condolences to Helen and all. A quote for you: "When you are truly loved...you can never get away....someone will hold you in their hearts each day!" Don Brennan Patty too

“ George, I will miss you. Your funny jokes, your love for Helen and life. Every time I put on a baseball cap, I will be reminded of how you loved them. It was a honor to make your egg white, veggie omelet every morning. You will be dearly missed by all who's life you touched. Helen, I love you, and am praying for you my lovely friend.

“ I loved his jokes, even though I heard some of them a few times ;) I told George he needed some new material, lol. He was my favorite Spartan and it was a pleasure knowing him not only as a resident at Waltonwood, but a good friend. I will always think of him when the Spartans lose (and win), because I'll hear his voice in my head saying "It's just a game." As far as Spartan B-ball goes, his response to a loss would always be "too many turnovers." Ain't that the truth. Well, at least the football team won the Rose Bowl for him this year :) I'll miss you like crazy George! Sparty On! Go Green! Go White!

Love, Caitlin a.k.a. Sparty
