

Gerald Lakotish

January 4, 2009

Lakotish, Gerald S. CPA, 76, December 30, 2008 Beloved husband of Carole
Loving father of Stephen (Zaida), George, and Mary (Frank) Bommarito
Loving Grandfather of Christina and Nicholas Bommarito and Simon Lakotish
Survived by numerous nieces and nephews Mr. Lakotish was a Korean War Veteran in the U.S. Army Visitation Sunday 5 to 9 pm and Monday 1 to 9 pm with a 5 pm prayer service at the Sterling Heights Chapel of the E.J. Mandziuk
& Son Funeral Home, 3801 18 Mile Rd. (NW corner of Ryan) Funeral services
Tuesday 11:30 Am at St. Basil Byzantine Catholic Church, Sterling Heights.
Mr. Lakotish will lie in state from 11:00 Am until the time of service.

Tribute Wall

“ Gerald Lakotish

October 23, 2023 at 04:00 AM

“ Gerald Lakotish

January 06, 2023 at 05:24 AM

“ Please accept my condolences. I knew Gerry through Clark Graphics.

He always had a kind word, helped me with tax questions or just shot the breeze with me in my cubicle. I left Clark 6 years ago, but still remember Gerry's weekly stops. He was a perfect gentleman and will be missed by all.

Leon - January 05, 2009 at 01:40 PM

IH

“ I have not seen Jerry in years but he grew up partly in my home my Father taught him to play golf summer it was golf winter Hockey. Jerry saved my life in High school as I was very shy, He my brother David and another young man Christian only comes to mind. I was walking in the halls at Pershing Hi. lost he found me took me to my class room, met me after. He was a jock and I was the hit of the girls in my class because he was the Jock of the 12th grad. I was sorry to hear of his passin I know he went to see my mother after my fathers death and my brothers dissaperance and was a gret comfort to her. She always had fresh bread and hot coco when the gys came back from playing hockey, we girls had to hid a loaf if we wanted any the next day. He and my brother server in Korea they kept in contct vis short wave, Jerry was on skis dave on a island, found each other by mistake,not supose to playing with Army radio. My prayers go out to your family at this time.

Isabel (Wood) Hamilton - January 05, 2009 at 12:53 AM

JV

“ Carol Know that old friends and colleages are thinking of you and will keep you in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

J. D. Vlaz - January 03, 2009 at 07:58 PM

JB

“ Gerald Lakotish

I have a memory. I remember a bright, enthusiastic fellow. Our friendship was very brief and yet I think of it often. I was on the Wayne State University golf team in 1958 and '59, and Gerry was on the team with me. Gerry played a good game of golf: like my game, good but not great. But in every other way Gerry was a great golfer. His enthusiasm was infectious. To this day I mimic how he used to tow his golf caddy cart with a cord from his belt: so as not to tire his arm and shoulder. I think I met Carole, a lovely young woman. I can only imagine they had a wonderful life together. I wish we had stayed in touch in spite of busy lives. I wish I had known him longer. But I'm glad that I have a memory of Gerald Lakotish.

My condolences are offered to Carole and to the family.

John R. Bellefleur, Ph.D.

John R. Bellefleur - January 03, 2009 at 11:51 AM

BZ

“ To the Lakotish Family,

Although I was stunned to hear the news of Gerry's passing from Stephen today, I nonetheless take comfort in knowing that God knew when to call Gerry home. About a year ago when Gerry was struggling with his latest health challenge I made a point of telling him how much he meant to the Zefferro family and to me personally. I tell people that in addition to God My Father, I've had 2 great teachers and mentors in my life - my Dad, who taught me all the things a Father passes on to his children, and Gerry Lakotish, who taught me not only the mechanics of business finance but more importantly how to be an ethical, honest and honorable business person. I know I told Gerry at that time that I love him, and now I tell the Lakotish family the same - I loved your Dad, and I will miss him dearly. I am so sorry for your loss, may God hold all of you in the palm of His hand and comfort you during this difficult time. You are in our prayers.

Love,

Bob & Theresa Zefferro and Family.

Bob Zefferro - January 02, 2009 at 04:07 PM