“ One of my favorite memories: When it was time for prom, and a prom dress was definitely not in my budget, Mrs. Cotter, made me one so I could go. She started from a bridesmaid dress and altered it just for me -- in all the loads of free time she had. When I think I have entirely too much to do, I remember of how she made time for me, and then my load seems not so heavy. Hope I find the opportunity to pay that forward.

*Aunt Gerry was a very kind and forgiving woman. I cannot recall one time she made a disparaging comment about anyone, and as her niece, there were times I deserved one. She was a testimony to the grace and mercy of the Lord and Savior whom she served all her days. I look forward to seeing her again - in Glory. May Our Gracious God shower my cousins with inexpressible peace and joy. Your cousin,
Donna*
