“OMG! Whenever I think of Gino I have to smile. I have never met a more positive person in my life! Working with him in the Instrument Panel group made the time more bearable with all the pressure we were under. I will never forget him putting on my long, navy wool coat, and navy fedora. He looked just like Fr. Guido Sarducci from Saturday Night Live!! We has such fun. Rest in peace Gino. God Bless your family.

I am so saddened to hear of the passing of Gino. He was a most wonderful person to know. And even though many years have gone bye since we have seen each other, I think of him many times. We were bowling buddies for many years and he was always upbeat and funny win or lose. Rest in peace Gino and may God bless your family.

Gino was such a joy to be around and will be missed by the many, many people that feel as I do. One lovely tale I must tell.

At Gino's retirement party I asked what his plans were. He said he would now be able to find time to fix the light in his garage. I asked what he meant. He explained that he had an electrician wire a circuit to his detached garage 27 years earlier, but had never managed to hook up a light fixture.

If this was accomplished, maybe someone can turn the light on for me, just once.

RIP Gino.

As he entered heaven all the relatives yelled "Gino's here". There are too many stories to tell about him. We all should lead our lives as he did. Love of: Family, Compassion for others, Laughter and Fun. Love, John and Karen
