“ Your family has been in my thoughts this week. I am sorry I wasn't there to attend the funeral but we had a cousin's reunion planed with Joe's family this weekend in Naples.

I know how tough it is to lose your Mother no matter what age she is. Aunt Rosemary always told me she loved me every-time I saw her and had kind words and praise when she talked about her children and grandchildren. She had a way of making you feel special every time you saw her. Her encouragement , love and support is reflected by your family's' successful lives. She made this world a better place and I know she is with God now and is smiling down on her wonderful family.
