

Glenn Thomas Magill

December 30, 1964 - October 8, 2023

In loving Memory of Glenn Thomas Magill

We are saddened to announce the passing of Glenn Thomas Magill. He is known to friends and family as “foof,” who left this world on October 8, 2023, at the age of 58 years. Glenn’s life was cut short due to medical health issues, but his memory will forever live on in our lives.

Glenn was born December 30, 1964, in Highland Park, MI to Richard and Judy Magill. Glenn loved watching TV. He loved watching his favorite teams of football and baseball. Glenn most liked his classic movies. He enjoyed playing, teasing, and watching his grandchildren Alliyah and Adalynn grow. Glenn enjoys barbecuing outside and going upnorth with his family. Glenn enjoyed family gatherings and is happiest when spending time with family and friends.

Glenn and Rose Married in Mt Clements, MI in 2003, 20 years ago. Glenn became the stepfather to Jonna who was 11 at that time. Glenn and Rose moved to Madison Heights MI where they raised their family. Glenn worked for Coca cola for more than 20 years.

He is survived by his wife Rose and daughter Jonna Abando; Parent Rich and Judy Magill; Sisters Denise Steifel, Janine Sheridan, Colleen Tooze; Brother

Rich Magill; Grandchildren; Alliyah and Adalynn Abando

As we say our goodbyes. His memories will live on and may your spirit continue to guide us on our journey through life. Continue to be our guardian angel watching from above.

Family and Friends are invited to attend in celebration of life gathering on October 14, from noon to 2pm. There will be service held at 1pm at Mandziuk and Son Funeral of Sterling Heights

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the American Diabetes Association.
