Jeanie was the matriarch of her family and will be greatly missed by so many. She loved her family to the moon and back. She was a devout Catholic. She loved going to brunch with her gal-pals after Church. She was a hairdresser for 50 years and was the proud owner of Jean's Cut-n-Curl where she worked her magic making the ladies of South Warren beautiful. Momma we love you so much.

“ Dear Richard, Kelly and Corey,

We are so sorry to hear of Jeanie's passing. She was always a very devoted and loving wife, mother and friend to her countless customers. (Jeanie made home visits to my husband Paul's aunt and god mother, Mary Hengstebeck, when she was unable to come into the shop.) I always looked forward to going to grandma's on Sundays in hopes that Jeanie would want to "play with my hair". Surely she knew her calling at a very young age!

Love, thoughts and prayers for the entire family, we now have another angel looking out for us! Rest in peace, Aunt Jeanie!

“ Dearest Richard and Kelly & Corey,
My sincere sympathy at Jeanie's death. I remember well the first time Richard and Jean and I met and talked at Fitz around something at a bus. We had a great conversation and began our friendship. Richard was heading to his surgery in the coming weeks. I appreciate the years following with Jeanie helping with the handicap concerns in our major renovation. She did herself proud. So many other areas of parish life which bear the imprint of Jeanie's hands.
My prayers are with all of you in these days. May Jeanie rest in peace and may you find the peace you seek.

I have so many memories of our childhood days and all good times & not so good times as we both grew up. Your first day at school & all the days of our school years. I will miss you little sister Jeanie & you will always be in my heart. Happy Trails.

Farewell, Gloria. Always Gloria. Your name appeared on the class list for eighth-grade English in 1956: "Gloria Evans." First row, front desk. One of the few bright spots among the rowdy 8-2's. One of the many bright spots in Fitzgerald High School's class of 1961.

Farewell Old Friend.

Ave atque Vale.

Jeanie always had a smile even when the cancer was trying take her life. She battled and fought a good fight. but she's finally at peace and no longer in pain. Someday we'll all meet up in heaven. She will be missed by all of us!
