“ I will always remember the talks you and I would have about my jobs I worked at and the places you worked when you were younger. I will also remember us always talking about Ann Arbor and the places you knew out there. You were always so kind and I will cherish how you accepted KayDee and I and how you always said it didn't matter just as long as we loved each other. May you rest in peace my dear Uncle and give Grandma, Papa and Doug a big hug from KayDee and I. I will miss you so much Uncle Greg. Love Always, - Becky

“ I remember every gathering we would see our cousins, Greg would always have his accordian with him and he would play for us. I have a picture of several of us in our bedroom at my home, I grew up in which was very small, and my grandma was dancing, Greg was playing the accordian, and my brother Al was on a guitar. We sure had fun that night. I guess Aunt Barb missed you taking care of her and wanted you up with her. Love and prayers.
