“ It has been at least 30 years since I've seen Guy. We used to work together back then. He was always able to lighten the mood with his whimsical quips and miscellaneous philosophies. I've thought about him often and sad I just learned of his passing.

“ I am saddened upon the news of Guy passing, but at the same time I am rejoicing and knowing that Guy is with the Lord and all is well with him. I had the privilege of the Lord introducing me to Guy at Wellspring nursing home just about 2 months ago, I have seen Guy once a week since then to talk and have prayer with, it would have been nice to have met him long ago, to have developed a longer friendship. The Lord's timing is perfect for everything so I don't doubt that that was the time we were allowed to have together in prayer and fellowship. I was on vacation last week and did not hear of guys passing until today when I showed up at the nursing home to talk to him. may the Lord give his family the strength and peace and calm that come with knowing the Lord, that your time of grief will pass by swiftly. In the name of Jesus Amen God bless your family always. Love In Christ always chaplain Chuck

“ My Aunt Esther would start laughing uncontrollably at the mention of his name . He did a running narration at Danny's wedding while Aunt !Maryann and Dorothy danced to the YMCA song that was gut aching funny 🤔🤔 He will be missed by many 💕💕
