“ Dear Tom -

We extend our most sincere sympathy to you and your family upon the loss of your father. Bereavement is so personal that few of us, unless we have experienced it ourselves, can comprehend its grief. Although we never met your father, surely he was a wonderful person, his son is a perfect example! They say that the apple doesn't fall too far from the tree. We know your courage will help you through this rough time. Our love is with you.

(p.s. - I sent this again because I can't stand typo's.)
