“ First of all let me give my true condolences to all of Mrs. schraufnagel's family members. I was fortunate enough to live my childhood days with her whole family. I can still picture every room in her house and all the furnishings. All of these pictures are some of my fondest memories especially that big old piano, the washing machine that had to be emptied by buckets, the raspberry garden next to the house, the old willow tree we played under, the Browns and the Donaldson's who lived on either side of her and helping the kids with their chores so we would have more time to play. I thank her for the many steak sandwiches that Pat and I would cook, they were the best. I thank her for her daughter Pat who was one of my best friends that I experienced many many great times with. She did a super job raising her children. May she rest at the side of God and the rest of her family who predeceased her. Pat piazza

“ I have many fond memories of Helen and her children. To me as a child growing up I would always refer to her as Mrs. Schraufnagel. Back when I was a child adults in the neighborhood were called Mr or Mrs not by their first name. To me she will always be fondly remembered as Mrs. Schraufnagel. I still can remember sitting in her living room with her children watching the Mickey Mouse Club as if it was yesterday. Her family are in my thoughts and my prayers. Sending my love to all.
