“ I have many wonderful memories of my sweet Aunt Helen. My brother Larry and I always had so much fun hanging out with our cousins Danny and Denise, while Aunt Helen, Uncle Danny, my mom (Virginia) and dad (Vince) visited with them and other Bova family. I can still hear Aunt Helen's voice in my head. She always had a kind word to share and was so quick to laugh. She enjoyed life. Heaven has a new angel. Love, Debbie

I met Helen & Danny when I started dating Mike (his sister Marsha was dating their son Dan) They were the warmest people & cutest couple. When my Aunt told me her friend MaryAnn had an apt. we could rent & when we went to see it Danny was with her & said this is Helen's sister! We were constantly intermingled with people they knew. Helen was the family to see my babies when they were born as I delivered at the hospital that she won awards for her volunteer service. Everyone knew Helen, was comforted & enjoyed her presence. Such a faithful woman who loved Mike & I like her own & fussed over my girls like a Grandma. We will miss her petite, fashionable, smiling, encouraging spirit. May perpetual light shine upon her.
