“ I have very fond memories of Helena. I married her middle daughter Janet. The first time I met her I was in the Navy and I came over for a visit. She told me I was too skinny and had to eat and then proceeded to cook me a huge meal. Needless to say, the food was fantastic and so was she! I know she was proud of all of her daughters! She told me that they all had wonderful husbands and how that made her so very happy. Being one of those husbands of course I thanked her very much. 😊 My heart goes out to my wife and her two Sister and those other two great husbands Alan and Joe. Sending Love and prayers to you all! ❤️🕶️
