“ I am sorry to hear about the death of your love ones. Do you know that Jesus promised a future at (John 5:28,29) which says that do not be amazed but those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. Also notice another scripture at (Acts 24:15) which says that there going to be a resurrection for both the righteous and the unrighteous this scripture is very confronting and also notice another thought at (Revelation 21:4) says death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore the former things had past away. These all the times I am looking forward to see my love ones that I had lost.. I hope this thought confront you and your family and my love goes out to you and your family

“ So many memories. . . So much love. . .

We couldn't imagine a better next door neighbor. . . day after day, year after year. His warm smiles, fatherly advice and the great example he set for my children who have been so lucky to live next door to such a good man their entire lives. I'll always remember his smiles as he lifted one of them to pick a treat from one of his many fruit trees, sent them running back to our yard with some fresh strawberries and a huge smile, or his help with something we just couldn't get right without him.

We've referred many times to Henry's yard as a magical garden, a magical place. But it's not because of his incredible green thumb, but because of his wonderful, warm heart. Sharing our lives with Henry and Lucy has been such a blessing to all of us.

Our deepest sympathy and so much love goes out to Lucy, Diane, Monica and the rest of the family at this sad time.

*With all our love and prayers,
Nancy McClarren, Zachary & Alyssa*

“ Our dear dear Henry..... we will miss you so very much. You have been the best next door neighbor that anyone ever had for the past 36 plus years. We will miss your smile and your wave every time we would see you outside. And we will miss the many wonderful conversations we had with you about life and world events. We learned so much valuable knowledge from you. And we are better people for having known you during our lifetime.

To Lucy, Diane and Monica, and the rest of the family... we extend our sincere sympathies. We know what a loss this is to all of you and we feel your pain.

Heaven is lit today by Henry's "greater than life" personality and his genuine love for others.

With much love, Debbie and Dennis Thueme
