

Indumati (Ashaben) J. Bhatt

November 30, 1941 - June 29, 2022

Indumati Jitendra Bhatt, 80, of Sterling Heights, MI, passed away on Wednesday, June 29, 2022, at home with her daughters by her side. She was the beloved wife of (late) Jitendra C. Bhatt for 51 years and is survived by her loving daughters Divya (Amit) and Nita (Jason). She was the respected sister-in-law of Yogendra C. Bhatt and the beloved Aunt of Kevin, Nitin, Udayan, Yash and many nieces and nephews. Asha, as she was affectionately known by friends and family, is also survived by her siblings Kokila (late Girish) Gita (Harish), and Sanjay (Sangeeta). She will also be missed by other relatives, friends and well-wishers.

She was born on November 30, 1941 in Umreth, India to Natverlal and Devlaxmiben Bhatt. Asha enjoyed being around people- especially family and friends. She and her beloved husband were together always- especially after retirement. Asha always thought of others, from making samosas or snacks for neighbors to checking on family or friends who were unwell or grieving. She was always willing to help in any way. She will be remembered for her generous and kind heart.

Asha was devout in her faith and attended temples frequently. She loved listening to different types of music, especially devotional and old Hindi film songs with her husband and children.

Viewing and Hindu puja services will be held on Wednesday July 6, 2022 from 10:00 am to 12:30 pm at Mandziuk and Son Funeral Home located at 3801 18 Mile Rd Sterling Heights, MI 48314.

Friends are asked to consider memorial donations to the American Heart Association, American Lung Association or Alzheimer's Association.
