“ Growing up in Detroit Ciocia Irene was my next door neighbor, ciocia or ciotka is Polish for aunt, even though she wasn't my aunt, ciocia is also used as a term of endearment in the polish community. Ciocia Irene was also my godmother. A very giving person. I remember her taking Gary & me & other neighborhood kids to the fireworks downtown on the Detroit River and to Metro Beach in her Ford Falcon, it was a treat instead of swimming at Belle Isle. I remember Ciocia Irene & Larry taking Gary and me to what we called Square Lake, where I learned what real steak was and barbequed. For my birthday I would get a card with $5 in it, that was big money in the 50's for a young kid. Thank You Ciocia Irene for all these and more special childhood memories.
