

James Daniel Hemstreet

June 7, 1958 - December 16, 2014

Age 56. Passed away peacefully in his home in Warren.

Born in Detroit, Michigan to Robert and Ruth Hemstreet, he spent most of his beautiful life in his home in Warren.

Jim was a happy man who enjoyed spending time with his family above all else. He was loving and kind and never met a stranger. Every year he spent as much time as possible in the woods hunting with his friends and children. Jim was a proud and generous man, a loving husband and devoted father. Whenever a smile was need, you could on him to cheer you up! Jim was the Thanksgiving dinner master and the Christmas morning king. Whenever he was needed, he was there and there was never a problem too big for him to solve.

Jim is survived by his wife and best friend, Michele Hemstreet. The mother of his children, Cheryl Sievert. His five children and five grandchildren. He was very proud of his children Terry (Patrick) Watson, James (Kristy) Hemstreet, Nichole (Doug) Parker, Daniel Hemstreet and Anthony Krisan. He is also survived by his brother Larry (Beverly) Yates and David Yates.

In lieu of flowers, donations to the family would be appreciated.
