“ Bob, Continued prayers for you and your family at this most devastating of times. This verse has brought me comfort during the loss of a loved one, hopefully it brings some small comfort to you and yours. "The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the unwise they seemed to die, and their departure is thought to be an affliction, and their going from us to be utter destruction; but they are at peace." May God bless you and keep you. Rybak family.

“ Dear Hardy family -- Please accept my deepest condolences for your loss. I first met Jamie in January 2011 when she enrolled in one of my courses at MSU. Not only was she an outstanding student, but she was a genuinely nice human being. The world has lost a sweet, bright, determined, and beautiful young woman who positively touched those she met. My heart and prayers go out to all of you. -- Dr. Doug Hughes

“ Deepest sympathies for your loss. There is no greater pain than that of a parent losing a child. A true source of comfort can be found by taking refuge in Jehovah, the Father of tender mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). John 5:28,29 holds out the hope of the resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death, and Revelation 21:3,4 assures us that soon death and mourning will be no more. I truly hope this brings you some comfort at this very difficult time.

“ Bob,
I was so saddened to hear this news. There?s no loss greater than that of a child and unfortunately, no words great enough to ease that pain?I wish there were.
I will pray for you my friend.
