Jane Barcewicz beloved sister of Sophie and Regina
Pre-deceased by brother Anthony and Frank (The late Barbara)
Also survived by 7 nieces and nephews: Cheryl Barcewicz, Steve (Suzanne) Barcewicz, Janet, (John) Stum, Carolyn (Steve) Hjelle, 6 great nieces and nephews: Shauna (James) Hitchcock, Stephanie (Michael) Gordon, Spencer
Barcewicz, Briana Benge and 7 great-great nieces & nephews

Jane was born in Detroit, Michigan as the daughter of Polish immigrants. She was the 2nd of 5 children. She and her sisters, Sophie and Regina lived together their entire lives.

Jane was a devout Catholic who attended daily Mass during Lent on her lunch hour and always first Friday Mass. She faithfully prayed the rosary every evening and had many prayer intentions for those she met.

She was an intelligent and creative woman who enjoyed crocheting, knitting, sewing, gardening, cooking, and baking. She was quite an accomplished seamstress. Jane also had a love for ice skating, water ballet, and softball.

Jane worked for the Internal Revenue Service for 30+ years as a secretary and her boss recognized her intelligence and encouraged her to further her education. She earned her degree in business @ Detroit Commercial college. After retiring in her early 50's Jane began volunteering with Meals on Wheels delivering food to the elderly and homebound.
