“ I send my deepest sympathy to Dennis Dean, who was Jan's loving spouse for decades. I remember Jan as an avid tennis player, a dedicated, talented lab technician and a perfectionist in everything she did. In addition, she had a strong faith in God, and that is so important, especially these days.

My comments are based on the time that I lived in Michigan. I left there in Fall 1973 and have lived in Southern CA since then.

God bless, Jan!

“ Janice was a fellow Reginate (Regina H.S.). I (Cathy) have fond memories of walking to school with other girls, Janice included. She enjoyed involvement at church and going to different charity events,, etc. Capuchin Sock Hops. She loved many family gatherings. It seemed like nothing kept her down. We will miss her and her warm smile. Smiled at current residence many times during visits, lunch or after chair exercise.

“ I met Jan when my son married her niece Linda Dyar, she was always very sweet, kind and fun loving. She enjoyed all our family get togethers, especially Christmas Eve family time. She will be missed. Prayers to her family.
