“ *I am so sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is never easy. One thing that I've found to help is the hope found at John 5:28, 29. It says: "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who practiced good things to a resurrection of life..." Our creator promises to resurrect those who are sleeping in death. You may wonder, when and how? Visit www.jw.org and download the free book, What Does the Bible Really Teach, for the answer. I am sure that you will be comforted as I have been.*

“ Although I never met Janice, I had the pleasure to become friends with her daughter, Michelle. You raised a beautiful girl, both inside and out. She is kind, caring, compassionate, smart, strong, and true. I know Michelle must have had a fantastic support system behind her, and an exceptional role model to set the standard for her since she turned out so great! My condolences to the Slosek family; may you find comfort, healing, and peace during your times of trial. You're all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ There are so many memories when my cousin (aunt) Jan would say something crazy and make the entire room laugh. She had the best outlook on life. The memory that stands out the most to me and definitely means the most to me was when my father was sick and dying of cancer. Jan sat next to him at his bedside from sun up to sun down...entire visiting hours. That demonstrated the love she had for my dad and our family. The support she gave us will never be forgotten. She truly had a heart of gold and a smile that could brighten a room. You will be missed, Jan! We love you. Rest in peace.

“ Jan was a really good friend to me when I moved on to Young Street. She stood up in my wedding and I stood up in hers. I hate that we drifted apart later on. She was true blue. I have thought of her often and I will keep thinking of her off and on, but now she'll know that I am.

I will miss her.

“ Aunt Jan was such a beautiful person. I was in total shock and disbelief when I heard that she was gone- not quite believing that I wasn't going to be able to hear her voice again and hug her in this lifetime...The only thing I kept thinking was, 'How can that be?'... You see, Aunt Jan was so full of life and energy, and most of all- love. Aunt Janice was there for everyone in her life, including strangers. She had a heart bigger than anything imaginable. I will never forget how Aunt Jan would always say to me, when I saw her, that she was really my cousin, not aunt- I would respond that I did not care, she was aunt to me. Aunt Jan would always smile at this. I love her so much. She was my babysitter and mentor growing up and we were close friends later in life. Aunt Jan sent me a beautiful note a couple of years ago and was always supportive and loving towards me. My one solace is knowing she is in Heaven with my Uncle Larry- reunited in love once more. We all know her heart never quite healed from the loss of her beloved husband and best friend...now it has. You will be greatly missed Aunt Jan!!! Never forgotten! Please hug Grandma, Uncle Danny and uncle Larry for me!!! Until we meet again....

“ I have known you all my life. Michelle was my very first best friend. I have memories of us playing Barbie's at your house. Haha I always loved you and uncle Larry. Uncle Larry was the very first funeral I went to as a kid. We lost touch for a while. But BC of the great world wide web we reconnected. When ever I have felt down or needed a little boost of confidence you always seemed to know what to say... when I heard the news about your passing I was in complete shock and disbelief... speechless... and Sooo Sooo heartbroken. Its such a horrific and traumatic thing for a person to lose not only one parent but two. My heart goes out to Michelle and Julie the girls and Landon. Please tell my mom I said hello and give her a hug for me. And tell uncle Larry I said hi too. I know they are both Sooo excited to see you!!!!!!! Your broken heart will finally be whole again. You will be forever missed. Never forgotten. I know you are with the angles and we will meet someday soon!!! Love you very much. Xoxo

“ I loved you so much and when I heard the news you were gone, it hit me very hard. I was in shock for many reasons. One was because I couldn't remember the last Time I got to give you a hug telling you I loved you. Another was because you were a mother to me and when I seen you I will always remember you asking, "where is my son, how is my son doing!". I can't begin how many times that played over and over in my head hearing the news cause I won't hear that again. But the one thing I can say is I don't have one bad memory of you. I don't have anything ever bad to say about you. You were always there for me and always gave me love. I have all but great memories of you and will cherish every moment of them. If only I could have gave you one more hug I would have told you not only thank you for making the most beautiful girls, being there for me, giving me love when needed but also to tell you without you in the world, my life wouldn't have been meaningful. I do hope one day maybe when I even pass whenever that may be, I can pay a visit to ya and hear that voice again and see that face. Giving me a hug that I may not let go. I will miss you so much and love you always. Rest in piece my second mother. My heart will always be open for you. Hurts now but in time we all will heal from losing such an amazing woman.

“ There are no words to express the loss I feel. You were like a mom to me. I thank you for everything you have done for me. The only thing that brings comfort is knowing you are with Larry again, your true love. I will miss you with all my heart. Until I see you again.
Love your lil sis, Deb
