

Jean Cairo

March 31, 1951 - March 5, 2025

Jean A. Stovel Cairo, age 73, passed away after a brief illness on March 5, 2025. Born to Florence Long and Gerald Stovel on March 31, 1951 in Detroit, Michigan. She was preceded in death by her spouse and love of her life George J Cairo, her sister Patricia Stovel Flanigan and both parents. She is survived by her two step-children, Janine M. Cairo (Jeffrey Guzick) and Scott D. Cairo (Kelly) and six beloved grandchildren Rachel Cairo, Joshua Cairo, Luke Cairo, Lydia Cairo, Abigail Cairo and Mark Cairo. She is also survived by her brother Thomas Stovel (Karen), brother-in-law Mike Flanigan (Patty) as well as niece Tracee Madden (Randy), nephew Nathan Flanigan (Beth), nephew Aaron Flanigan (Ali) and grand-nephew Joshua Madden, grand-niece Megan Madden and grand-niece Harper Flanigan.

Jean was beloved by everyone who knew her. She loved her family and extended family and her favorite pastime was spending time with her grandchildren. Being a grandmother was a role she cherished immensely. She was a faithful attendee for the kids from sporting events to dance recitals. She loved to travel and had many happy memories of times at the beach with her dear friend Barbara as well as taking a much anticipated trip to London and Paris. She will be dearly missed by her family and friends.

A memorial service for Jean is in the process of being planned in the next few months. The interment will be at White Chapel where she will rest alongside her husband George and sister Patty. Fond memories and online condolences may be offered to the family at www.MandziukFuneralHome.com In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to the American Lung Association or the Detroit Christian School (thedetroitchristianschool.com).