“ Dear Family, I was saddened to read of your loss and I'd like to extend my deepest sympathy for your dear Jeanette Mosey. I can only imagine the pain you must feel. I pray that you can find hope in the Bible: 1) A loving God would never take our loved ones: (James 1:13) ?With evil things God cannot be tried nor does he himself try anyone.? 2) God will comfort you: (Psalm 34:18) ?Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; And those who are crushed in spirit he saves.? 3) Jesus Christ, thru God?s Kingdom, His Word, the Bible, gives us a wonderful hope, namely, the prospect of living in a paradise on earth and seeing the resurrection of our dead loved ones. (Luke 23:43; John 5:28, 29)) ~ Hope this comforts you like it has my family during loss

“ *Laura and family,
We are so sorry for your loss, and wish we could be with you today.
Please take comfort in the fact that we are here for you in any way necessary. Im sure you get your triumphant spirit from your Mom, but please take time to grieve.*

With much love & support, Suzan, David, Matisse & Arabella

“ Laura - Our family has your extended family in our thoughts and prayers. What a blessed life we lead and we are sure to remember and appreciate those that touch us and make us who we are. Your mom must have been a very special lady to have raised such a kind and dynamic leader.

“ *Uncle Bud and family, so sorry to hear that Aunt Jeannette has died.
We are sorry for your loss.*

I haven't seen you all in years, but remember being at grampa and gramma's house in Mancelona and sharing summers with aunts, uncles and cousins.

*Our thoughts and prayers and with you all.

“ Laura,

My sincerest condolence to you and your family. I guess I did not realize how dire the situation was so I was caught off guard. I am a believer that there is peace upon death and that our family members are in in a better place. We have known each other for a short time but if I can help in any way please let me know.

Sincerely,

Jon Bisceglia

“ While I can't completely understand what it must be like to lose your mother, I do understand the power of love. Both of you gals love big! I am sure there is now such a hole in your heart for this love loss. I am praying and will continue to pray for you and your family. God's understanding is so much greater than ours. At least you know there is a great reunion waiting in heaven. Thank you God for this peace. I love you gals and am here for you. I pray for God's peace and comfort for you during these challenging times. Just wish I could be there with you. Hugs.

“ Laura:

I know how tough losing your mom can be. It has been about 3 1/2 years since my own mom died. You always feel the loss, but with time it does get better. Remember all the great memories I am sure you have.

You and your family are in my prayers during this challenging time. Try to trust in the power and the promise of the Resurrection and know that death is never the end of our existence, but only the beginning of the next phase of our lives in the Lord.

“ Jeanette worked for me until her retirement. She had a excellent work ethic but was quite a character. Once she had her mind made up she stuck to it. We had many good laughs with her. One thing that never waivered was her love for her family. That was solid. Jeanette was always happy with what she had and even though it was not much she was satisfied. God love her. She will be missed.
