“ Dear family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Jeffrey Wayne Cariveau. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes many different emotions which are somewhat unpredictable. Let me tell you my favorite Bible text. Maybe some of these scriptures will also help you. “Blessed be. . . the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.”—2 Corinthians 1:3, 4. (John 5:21, 28, 29) Yes, Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever under peaceful, paradise conditions.

“ Jeff's heart was as big as the world itself. Knowing the family and growing up around them was and is a honor. When my family and I started out and no jobs to be had, Jeff made room for me at the shop so me and my family could make ends meet.
God Bless and give Barb and all the Cariveau family strength and peace.

“ Jeff was a Wonderful person, I knew him through my daughter who went to school with him. He was always so polite and nice to talk to. I knew him also from Al's collision where I had taken many cars to be repaired. He would always say tell your daughter hi. My condolences to you Barb and you family for your loss. I knew he was sick because when I took my van in for work. The brothers told me how sick he was. My Prayers are with you at this time. R.I.P Jeff.

“As my sister, Melody, said: “I don't ever remember not knowing Jeff. The Cariveau's were our extended family growing up. Our Mom's were best friends. Jeff, in particular, was a big brother and protector. I adored him.”

We all spent a lot of time together, especially in the summers swimming in their pool. I wish we wouldn't have lost touch over the years. I did get to hear about him and his family through others in my family. He was a very special man. I am blessed to have known him and he will be in my heart forever. Thoughts, prayers and love to Barb and the rest of the Cariveau clan.

“My heart hurts and my thoughts and prayers go out to Barb and the family. I hadn't seen Jeff in several years since I moved. But for years I lived a few blocks from Al's Collison and we did run into each other often and it was always a good hearty chat catching up with each others lives. He spoke with so much love for his family. We had a great friendship growing up as teens he was the person to go to when you had a problem, usually boy problems. Jeff was wise beyond his years at that age. Genuine, sincere, caring and always there for you. I am proud to have been blessed with his friendship. Rest in Sweet Peace my Friend...your job here on Earth is done and you did it well. You will always be in my heart.. God Bless!

“ I want to say the Jeff Cariveau was the most amazing, caring person I have ever meant. When George and I were young, first starting out on our own at 17, with a baby, he was always there with supportive words and guidance. He would give us advice and cater to Alyse, Kay and Ty, letting us know that even though we were young, it would be alright, we would find our way. He would always have a big smile on his face when he seen us, always asking George if we were ok and if we ever needed anything, to let him know. As we grew and the kids grew, we went through our many trials and tribulations, he was always there routing us on. When George passed his test to become a truck driver, he was so proud and said we are going to be just fine. Even though George and I didn't make it together, Jeff still had faith in both of us to be ok. We were, little bumps in the road, even though we are separated, we both learn a lot from Jeff. No matter what the circumstance was, Jeff always was there for us. I felt like we were his adopted kids, crazy kids at that, come on we are talking about George and I..lol.. but he never judge us, always there giving a speech, with a smile. When I went back to school for pharmacy, he was so proud and said,he always knew I was smart, no matter what, I would find a way. I feel bad because when he became sick, I didn't see him anymore, I would ask all the time, how he was. I raise my glass to the most incredible human being you will ever come in contact with, this man had a heart of gold and would give you his last dollar if you needed it. I'm praying for you Jen, Jeffrey and Barb, I'm so sorry and my love goes out to each one of you. I am blessed to have known him and he will be forever in my heart. I will truly miss him and his great sense of humor, my love and prayers go out to the Cariveau family, you are all my family, much love.

“ I don't ever remember not knowing Jeff. The Cariveau's were our extended family growing up. Our Mom's were best friends. Jeff, in particular, was a big brother and protector. I adored him. I don't remember but, I've been told that, Jeff was the one who carried me home to my parents after my accident. He also taught me how to make grilled cheese sandwiches without burning them when I was a kid. I will carry those memories and more and cherish them and him forever. My heart, thoughts and prayers go out to all of the family at this very difficult time. Love and hugs to you all.

“ I love him like a brother, a best friend. We met as toddlers, grew up across the street from each other and were glued to the hip for many years. Then he met the love of his life and best friend. Barb – you are Jeff's 'angel' and he called you 'his angel' many times over the years and well deserved. God bless you and your family in this very difficult time. His light was extinguished many years too soon. Our prayers to all of the Cariveau family.
