

Jerome "Jerry" D. Lewandowski

October 4, 1930 - July 31, 2017

Age 86.

Of Sterling Heights, MI and wintering in Jupiter, FL passed away surrounded by the love of his family.

Jerry was a graduate of Wilbur Wright High School, served in the Korean War as a proud member of the US Army. He was a devoted employee of General Motors and a member of St. Jane Frances DeChantal Catholic Church.

Jerry was the devoted husband of the love of his life the late Theresa, as well as the loving father of Michael (Cholpon), Mark, Karen (Max Rappaport) Slatkin and Sharon (John) Donati. He was the amazing Pa of Nursultan, Allyssa, Olivia, Cassie, Sam, Corie, Victor and Grace.

Jerry will be remembered for his joy of life and passing that joy on to those surrounding him. He often had a coffee cup in hand and a smile on his face. Jerry loved anything outdoors from hunting, fishing and boating in his younger years, to watching the fishing boats come in on the Jupiter Inlet bench in retirement. He rarely missed a Tiger ball game or the final round of the PGA tour. He entertained us all with his storytelling that often left us laughing and laughing.

Jerry's life will be celebrated at a private memorial service.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society.

“ Jerry was wonderful with the way he interacted with the neighborhood children. He often invited the kids to play in his backyard pool and they also talked with him a lot so know he was entrusted with many secrets and complaints! We always knew when it was Spring as we'd see Jerry walking up and down the sidewalk with his cup of coffee and a smoke. He was a genuine, kind and soft spoken man and a wonderful neighbor. We offer our sympathy on his passing.
