

Jetinder Singh Maan

May 11, 1969 - September 28, 2025

Jetinder Maan, beloved son, brother, uncle, cousin, nephew, and dear friend, passed away peacefully on Sunday, September 28, 2025, at 12:06 PM, at the age of 56.

Jet's life was defined by kindness, generosity, and an unwavering devotion to the people he loved. He had a brilliant mind and a compassionate heart, qualities that made him both a wise advisor and a gentle presence to all who sought his guidance. Known for his quick wit and playful smile, Jet could bring laughter and light into any room, even during difficult times. He was deeply trustworthy—someone who could always be counted on to listen, support, and stand faithfully by those he loved. He gave selflessly, often putting the needs of others above his own, and carried himself with quiet strength, integrity, and humility. To his family, Jet was a source of endless love and comfort; to his friends, he was a steadfast confidant and loyal companion. His warmth, humor, and wisdom enriched the lives of everyone around him.

Jet is survived by his loving parents, Sukhdev (Dave) Maan and Iqbal (Bali) Maan; his sister, Renee Maan; and Richard Liggett, with whom Renee lovingly raised Jet's two cherished nephews, Luca and Liam—the great joys of his life. He also leaves behind a large, close-knit circle of cousins, aunts, uncles, and lifelong friends who will carry his memory forward with love and gratitude.

At the request of his mother, Jet will be honored in accordance with the sacred traditions of the Sikh faith. The funeral rites (Antim Sanskaar) and prayer services will bring together all who knew and loved him, offering space to seek solace, reflect on his soul's journey, and celebrate a life that touched so many hearts.

Though Jet's time on earth feels far too short, his legacy of love, loyalty, kindness, humor, and generosity will live on forever in the hearts of those blessed to have known him.

“ To the family of Jet,

I want to share my deepest condolences. I am so very sorry for your loss. My heart truly goes out to you during this incredibly difficult time.

I only knew Jet for a short time after I moved to Dallas and began working alongside him. Though we worked together for just two months, the very first day we met I felt grateful that our paths had crossed. He was such a pleasure to work alongside, and he had a warm, homely presence — the kind of person who made you feel at ease instantly.

From our first conversation, I learned that we shared the same hometown in North London, and that the first place he lived in the U.S. was also the same as mine in Rochester hills, just twenty years apart. It felt like such a special connection, and I'm truly thankful our lives intersected when they did in Dallas.

Jet also often spoke fondly of the strong bond he shared with his family, and it was clear how much they meant to him. Even after he left the company, I often thought of him and wondered how he was doing. I was unbelievably saddened to hear of the loss of such a happy, kind soul.

Please know that your family is in my thoughts and prayers. I hope you are surrounded by love, strength, and support as you grieve the loss of Jet.

*With heartfelt sympathy,
Neha*

“ First and foremost, my deepest condolences to the family. Although I haven't seen Jet in over 20 years, I still look back upon our time together with great fondness and reverence. Over the years, I have wondered where his path had led him. I loved his intelligence, his wit, his integrity and his passionate love for his family and friends. Even though we haven't been in touch, I feel a great loss today. I can only imagine how those closest to him are grappling with this tragedy. I send love and peace. Shannon

Hi Shannon,

I just wanted to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the beautiful message you left for Jet. Your words touched me deeply. It means so much to know that others saw in him the same qualities we cherished every day—his kindness, gentleness, and the love he so freely gave.

You also knew, as we did, that Jet was more than just kind—he was witty, intelligent, and carried himself with such quiet integrity. He had a way of making people laugh with his playful humor, but at the same time, you could always count on him to be the steady, reliable person who kept his word and treated others with respect. That rare combination of warmth, wit, and wisdom was part of what made him so extraordinary.

In these difficult days, your message reminded me not just of the loss we're feeling, but also of the richness of his life and the way he touched others, including you, in such meaningful ways. I'm so grateful you took the time to honor him with your words—it brings comfort to know his spirit lives on in the memories of those who loved him.

*With gratitude and warmth,
Renee*
