

Jitendra C. Bhatt

December 8, 1937 - April 8, 2022

Jitendra C. Bhatt, 84, of Sterling Heights, MI, passed away on Friday April 8, 2022, at Ascension Hospital in Warren. He is survived by his beloved wife Asha of 51 years. He was the loving father of daughters Divya (Amit) and Nita (Jason). Jitendra is also survived by his brother, Yogendra (late Chandrika), nephews Nitin (Melanie), Udayan, and Kevin, as well as many other relatives, close friends, and well-wishers.

He was born on December 8, 1937, in Anand, India to Chunilal and Savitaben Bhatt. Jitendra appreciated the simple pleasures in life, an avid Detroit Tigers' fan, he enjoyed watching baseball and other sports. He spent his days taking long walks, chatting with family and friends, giving advice, watching older Hindi films, and staying informed with both local and India news.

In lieu of flowers, friends are asked to consider memorial donations to the American Heart Association or Myeloma Research Foundation.

“ Ever since I arrived US, Jitukaka had been in constant touch with me, asking about if I am okay and do I need anything to get settled. He has such a big heart that he always considered all of us as a part of one big family. We would always remember you Jitukaka. My thoughts and prayers go out.

“ It is hard to believe Jitukaka is no longer with us. I must say Jitukaka was very kind, caring and supportive to take care of family members. He used to call me to know about my father's health and how my family is doing. I always sound him very positive when spoke to him about his health. We will definitely miss him. Praying for his Akshardhamgaman eternal peace and strength to family for the loss. Sorry for your loss.
