“ Dear Sonya and Petra,

I was so sorry to hear about the passing of your father. I remember when you paid a visit at my fathers funeral back in 2010 and I was touched that you would have taken time out of your schedules to comfort my family at a difficult time. I only heard of your fathers passing today from a client that was in and was saddened to hear the news and also that I was not aware and missed the opportunity to pay my respects.

I sincerely wish you and your families all the piece and comfort at this difficult time!

Sincerely,

Roman Batschynsky

“ Our family is devastated to hear of John's sudden passing. Our deepest sympathy to Helen and family. John and Helen have been in our lives for as long as I can remember. And John has been the backbone of St Josephats. Life there will not be the same without him. He is now with our Lord and all the wonderful friends who have passed before him. My dad being one of them. And of course his son, Paul. May God hold you in His loving arms and bring comfort to Helen and his girls.
