“ Dear Marcia and Family: Everyone will miss John he always had a funny story to tell. When we heard John sing and play we knew he was the band for our wedding on Sept. 11 1976. The Motor City Polka Jacks were a very entertaining group and they knew how to get a party started. we will never forget the nights wit the Zug Islanders at the Senate Café in Hamtramck. Everyone remembers him on The Polka Jammer Network. There were many nice tributes to him. Rest in Peace John. Linda and Tom Sobieski , Southgate MI

“ I loved John like a brother. Great guy, sense of humor, and a great drummer when he was playing.

Our deepest sympathies to Marcia, John Jr, Adam and Lindsay.
God bless all of you.
