

John Losinski

October 29, 2022

John Chester Losinski, age 83, of Warren, Michigan passed away on October 29, 2022. He was a loving husband to Marina for 57 years and a beloved father to his four children, Greg (Kristin), Deann (Keith) Kujawski, Jason (Kari), and Jan (Steven) Gardner. Proud Papa of Dylan (Cedric), Patrick, Kyle, Conner, Cora, Jonathan, Eli, Murphy, Evelyn, Greta and Penny. Also proud great-grandfather to Declan. Dearest brother of Tom (Anne), Julie (John) Kowalski and sister-in-law, Ann. John was preceded in death by his parents John and Anna Losinski and brother Lawrence.

“Big John” was born in Alpena Michigan and graduated from Catholic Central High School. After high school he went on to study at Alpena Community College as a Student Athlete. He retired from his career as a supervisor at General Motors. What he really loved was his garden, hunting, fishing, playing and watching sports, reading the newspaper, spending time up north and most of all being with his family. His booming voice and loud personality are what made him special. His nickname was not only about his physical size but rather the size of his love that he shared with our world.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in memory of John can be addressed to The St. John's Ladies Aid or St. Anne Catholic School.

Visitation will take place on Sunday, November 13, 2022 from 3-8pm at E.J.

“ So very sorry to hear of the passing of "Big John". I will always remember his larger-than-life presence, and his ability to make us all have 'big belly laughs'! I always thought you were family...you made people feel like 'home' while in your company. R.I.P., sir. My sincerest condolences to his wife, children, grandchildren, and all of the friends and family you acquired throughout life.

“ "Big John" loved to come upnorth and visit his family farm. We were neighbors, Alex and Denise Krajniak, where we became very close. He had his infamous beeping of the horn to tell us he was here. We will miss him, his visits, and his line of bull. Rest in peace, dear friend.

“ Big John was my favorite conversationalist and he had one or two opinions on everything. He often told jokes as if they had actually occurred and generally you had no idea until you reached the punchline. Perhaps the most unforgettable personality I ever met and what I admired most about John was his absolute love of his kids and wife. Gil

“ Big John was always that loud presence in the room that would be found razzing the kids and asking everyone if they had a job yet! He was a gentle giant and was adored by everyone who had the privilege to know him. A kind soul lost too soon and who will always be in the memories of his loved ones. My prayers and condolences to his wife, children, grandchildren, and extended family.
