“ So many beautiful memories. Such a gentle soul and loving heart. Never, ever have I met a man so lovingly devoted to his wife and daughter. What a delight. Spending special dinners together with he and Durga and myself and my husband Paul, special occasions, the first Easter dinner in the new house, 2 Dickens Festivals with horse drawn carriage rides and hand-picked bouquets John would pick from his garden. He is gone, but never will he be forgotten. Knowing him changed my life.
