Loving father of Martin, Cynthia (Jeffrey) Perkola, Christopher (Coleen), Cathryn (Raymond) Rutkowski, Kevin (Sarah), Kenneth, and the late Judy and four step-children Vic (Peggy), Vida (Mark), Ron, and Renee (Ferran).

Beloved husband of the late Aldona.

Cherished great-grandfather of Lucy, Reese, Reid, Dylan, Alana, Luna, and Oden.

Survived by his first wife Delphine Bartkowicz Tessmar.

John was good to all people. He was a good Christian and a great dad who loved his country and had a keen interest in the social sciences like history (especially the Civil War), archeology, anthropology, geography, classical music, and art. He loved to fish, hike, play cards, and read books and was a dedicated and resolute super fan of the Detroit Tigers and Detroit Lions his entire life. He will most be remembered for his sense of humor, his intuition, and that he believed in being fair and just. He will be missed by many.

“ it is remarkable to me that we are observing Uncle Jack s passing on Ascension Thursday in the Catholic Church Uncle Jack did not preach the gospel, but his life was a living gospel to God that radiated out to all who knew him.

Uncle jack was always the hit of our family gatherings because he could do something no one else could, make magic through tricks, sayings and sleight of hand i often think about how he overcame the difficulties in his life,through his belief in a greater power (God), his perseverance in work situations and most importantly the role his family played in his life

His family centered him. He knew what it was like to grow up in a difficult family situation. and did not want his family to experience the same As such, each of us have benefited from knowing my Uncle Jack, his children, his step children and nieces and nephews, of which i am one

On behalf of the Bernard Tessmar family, we reach out in love as we express our sympathies to all effected by the loss this great man “Dad you will remain in our hearts forever and your love for all will never be forgotten. You had a sense of humor with your one liners, great faith in God, magnetic personality and loved the Lions football games!

I will never forget you helping me in my darkest days. Ashley was in ICU Miami for 77 days in a coma. You went there with me from morning until she went to sleep. You helped me keep my faith and you were my sanity rock! I will never forget your love!

When I get stressed out I hear your voice telling me “Cool your jets V”

Rest In Peace Dad, you definitely deserve your wings! Until we met again.....🙏❤️

“ To the man I called Dad, I feel blessed to have had you in my life. You did so much for me: you helped raise me; you helped me with my school work, you were my model when I practiced hair-salon; you were my baseball coach; you taught me how to fish; you were the voice of reason in our house.

As I grow older, I see how wise you were - wiser than most people ever get in their lives! Your knowledge, your intuition, your humble nature, your humanity and kindness, your understanding of the human character. I have immense gratitude for the time we shared together. You were such a fundamental part of our family. Thank you. I will never forget you. Love always, and I hope to see you again in heaven one day. Rest in peace, Dad.

“ My Father-in-Law John is with Jesus Christ now and he is waiting for us. With Jesus as your Savior you will spend eternity with him. John called me his son, which makes me happy 😊. He was ready to see his God the Father and I am very happy he was not sad when he moved into eternity. God is good all of the time. 🙏

“ Dad, you are simply best Dad I Could have hoped for!

At time's you did without, so you could provide for your Family

I remember the fishing trips on Pontiac Lake and Houghton lake, going over the Mackinaw bridge for the first time, (I am still a nervous when I go over it) ,going to Stoney Creek and Metro Beach. You went to my Little League games, Football games and other youth sports and always shared some kind feedback /guidance after the event...

When people met you they were drawn to your magnetic charm and wit...you were loved by many....

Thanks for guiding and shaping me into who I am today...

You will missed forever!

Your loving son ~Chris
