

John Vecore, Jr.

June 28, 2016

John Vecore, Jr., 86, of Troy Michigan, went to be with the Lord on June 28, 2016.

He was born December 22, 1929 in Detroit, Michigan. The son of late Mary and John Vecore, Sr. He was one of five siblings. On May 9, 1954 he married his long-life love Gloria of 58 years.

He served in the U.S. Army as a communication technician in 1949. After his discharge, he was employed by Chrysler Corporation, Ford Motor Company and later as an electrical technician for 25 years with General Motors, retiring in 1983. He loved music and was an avid player of the Trumpet, Accordion, Piano and Organ. He taught piano and organ lessons in the evening at home for many years.

John will be remembered as a loving and caring husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather. He loved spending time with his family and friends. He was known as "Buddy" by many people. John loved to make people laugh.

He was the beloved husband of the late Gloria.

Loving father to his two devoted children; daughter, Deanne Vecore and son, John Vecore III (Leslie). Proud grandfather of his two precious grandchildren

Michael Ziamba and Jennifer (Josh) Miller and his four great grandchildren Jovie and Jace Ziamba, Evalyn and Eleanor Miller. Dear brother of Norman (Phyllis) Vecore.

He was preceded in death by his parents Mary and John Vecore, Sr., his two grandchildren Heather & Danielle Vecore, sister Gloria Fisher and brothers Mervin (Lee) Vecore & Calvin (Theresa) Vecore.

“ Deanna, John, and family. We share your loss of your wonderful father. He was always a joy to be around, with his smile and gentleness. John made everyone feel special. I remember how he would spend time talking with everyone, from children to the adults. May God grant you comfort and peace. May his memory be eternal
