“ I have known Joe and his family for many years. He was a man who had a sense of humor that wouldn't end. Always making jokes. He definitely loved his sisters and brothers as well as his wife, children and grandchildren. I know he will be deeply missed by Nanette and his grandchildren. May God hold him in his loving arms and welcome him through the gates of Heaven where he will be met by his sisters, brothers and his loving wife. Rest in peace, Joe. You've lived a good life full of love, humor, family and friends. We will miss you.
