“ We can be overwhelmed when suddenly confronted with life altering circumstances like death of a loved one. These are the times we need the most comfort and strength. One thing we can do ourselves is having a grateful heart this can help us to cope with grievous trials. How? Count your bless and never forget the Jehovah God personal cares for us. Phil 4:7

“ Dear Koresky Family,
We are keeping you in our thoughts and prayers during this sad time. May you hear John in the laughter of each other, may you see him in the eyes of his grandchildren, may you remember all of the great loving times you were blessed with his presence.
So sorry for your loss of a great man, husband, father, and grandfather.

Love Chrisee, Dave, and Joel McArdle

“ I remember the day that Bill and I went up to Uncle Joe and Aunt Caroline's farm in Yale, MI. We went pheasant hunting and got 22 rooster pheasants. I always enjoyed pheasant hunting and deer hunting with my cousin Bill. I have the wonderful memory of being the best man in Bill and Mary's wedding .

I, also, remember that Bill loaned me (for two weeks) his 1958 Chevrolet convertible to use when I was a senior at Adrian College.
