

Joseph Marine

March 8, 1936 - April 19, 2019

Joseph Edward Marine passed away on April 19, 2019 at the age of 83.

Dearest husband of 58 years of Dianne (Schaefer).

Loving father of Tim, Jodi (Alan) Burns, Natalie (Dan) Danaher, Lisa (Rich) Light, Chris (Anne), Heidi, and Jason (Megan).

Proud grandfather of 14.

Beloved brother of John (Marie) Marine and Chuck (Virginia) Marine and brother-in-law of Jack (Marian) Schaefer and Joanne (John) Grandits.

Joe graduated from GMI and worked for GM for 36 years as an engineer. He was a devoted family man above all else and a devout Catholic. Joe lived his faith in action every day through volunteering at his parish, Ss. Cyril and Methodius, at St Leo's Soup Kitchen, as Eucharistic minister at Henry Ford Hospital, and as an active member of the Legion of Mary. He was also a member of the Assumption Carmelite community. In lieu of flowers, donations to CovenantHouse.org are suggested.

“ Selfishly, I'll miss innocently answering phone at Mom & Dad's condo ... "Hello" ... depending on if it was one of his friends, cousins, my siblings or his grandkids- more oft than not, caller said Joe, Dad, Grandpa, Papa, etc. ... too funny. Guess I might have his voice, but it takes a life well lived to give his forever and always heartfelt answer to Christ's call to holiness ... yes, Amen!

“ Dear Diane & family, We will never forget your sweet, loving, devoted and caring Joe! Remembering when he gave me a tour of the Men’s Camp many years ago, going to the church concerts, my yoga classes with him, Bingo and Summerhouse socials. He will be truly missed. RIP, dear Joe with the Angels in Heaven and our Dearly beloved Lord!
