He is survived by his wife Ramzia of 57 years, son, Jacob his wife, Meaghan, daughter, Jacqueline and her husband, Eugene Allen. Joseph grew up in Kirkuk and worked side by side with his father as a mechanic. He came to America on a student Visa and spent the better part of his life working at Chrysler Corporation, as well as, having his own real estate company, Jacob Realty named after his only son. Joseph worked hard and was able to accomplish many things in his life. One of his proudest achievements was his ability to immigrate his siblings to the United States for a better and safer life. Joseph was one the first ordained Chaldean Deacons in Michigan. The Shauni legacy expanded and flourished, some migrated to California and some still here in Michigan. There are many nieces, nephews, and cousins that will remember him with love.

“Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion — inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself.”
