“ I doubt anyone still comes here, except me I guess... it's been a long time since I've heard your voice, but I have yet to forget and for that I am thankful. I'm not sure why I'm typing this... it's not like you can see it, but somehow I hope its message will travel to where ever you may be and help you feel loved and missed. I miss you still, every day.

I'm not sure if there is an afterlife, but one can hope that somehow, in the great beyond, whatever it may be, that I'll hear your voice again and know that it is you. I hope one day, I'll get to tell you about the person I became and the things I am proud of doing. I hope one day to remember what your hugs felt like because, even though I think I've forgotten the feeling, I know that that is what I miss the most.

"Hope is the thing with feathers that perches in the soul – and sings the tunes without the words – and never stops at all." (E. Dickinson)
I hope your soul is at peace, and I hope to see you again and maybe go for a bike ride in the rain.

“ Ellie, Making your first communion, we walked to H&R's confectionary and you bought paper dolls with dresses that you cut out and you could dress the paper dolls up. As you grew up, those paper dolls became your beautiful family. You were an ideal wife, mother and grandmother and the world is a lonelier planet without you on it. Love Eternally, your sister, Hippo.

We are so sorry to hear about Jo's death. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I know Jo's family must be just devastated. She fought for such a long time. I have heard them pray for Jo Davis at St. Lawrence where I go for the last few weeks and I wondered if it could possibly be your Jo

Marcia McIntyre/Gurche

year when family is especially important. My heart goes out to you*

“ 1. Thank you for sharing this news with us. It is always difficult to experience the death of our loved one. But as you said since your sister seemed to have kept her fight going to the very end, I am sure she will be rewarded with the Beatific Vision. I will continue to pray for the eternal repose of her soul and commend her in my Masses for the next while. Fr. Charles: Toronto, Ontario Canada

2. I am very sorry to learn about the death of your sister. Today, I remembered her soul at the Holy Mass. Also, I pray that at this difficult moment in your life you and your family may find peace and healing in the arms of our Lord. In Christ, Fr. Mariush: Pastor Our Lady of Grace Church, Angus, ON Canada

3. Please accept my condolences and prayers at the passing away of Josephine. I will keep her and her family in my prayers as well as you. I will celebrate a Mass this week for her. I imagine you will be remaining in Michigan for the funeral. I will celebrate another Mass for her when you return. My deepest sympathies and prayers, Fr. Andy, Angus, ON Canada

“ Josephine is a shining example of what a good Catholic should be. Her love of God and family is an inspiration to all. Her children, and her children's children, will rise up and call her blessed. You will be missed.
