“ It took me a minute to bring my self to write anything. We have so many memories, more than what pictures I have. Pictures are just that, pictures. Our memories are in my heart ❤️ I can't believe you are gone! Never thought it would be you that I had to say goodbye too. I'm heartbroken 💔 and so are the kids and my family and friends that you left a mark in their heart along the way. From Ellie's very 1st tattoo, every cheer competition, Florida, up north, port Austin, yours and ellies pet “squirtle“ I could go on and on... You will forever be missed Josh... We love you!!!

“ Josh knew how to light up a room and make everyone laugh. He would put your happiness before his own. He loved his family with everything he had, he was so beautiful inside and out. I will forever be grateful for the time Sydney and I had with him. He changed our lives for the better. We love you.

“ Lots of wonderful memories with Josh. Sledding, playing football and out in service. One of my favorites was when I rented a jet ski on Lake St. Clair. Brian and Josh split the time on it. Brian first, then Josh. Josh laughed so uncontrollably hard the entire time he was out there. I'll not forget him.
