“ What can I say about Tato. He was a very selfless and giving man who would give you the shirt if his back. He helped anyone who was in need no questions asked. He loved all of those he was close with. He had a very infectious sense of humor. He adored everyone's children and treated them as if they were his own. He was a wonderful father. He was always present in our lives. A man who lives to cook and was so good at it. The best BBQ. He loved fishing those days he would wake us up at 4am, pack a cooler than Kensington for the day until we were red lil lobsters, than burger King and dairy queen as a treat. Out Saturdays consisted of Eastern Market, Joe Randazzos, and Ethnic Bakery for fresh Burek. Loved all of the time I spent with him.
