“ Deepest Sympathy on the Loss of Your Mom, to Teresa (Andrzej) Halina (Marek), Children and Grandchildren. Your Mom/Grandma was a beautiful lady, spiritually and physically, kind and understanding. I first met her when she came here from Poland with her husband and children. And she's going to be a wonderful Angel for eternity in God's Kingdom. Hugs and Condolences from Ilene

My first memory of Josephine, from about 50 years ago, stays in my heart today. I remember being a young girl (maybe 9 years old) and meeting my Grandmother's sister for the first time. She took hold of me and my four siblings and kissed us and hugged us with so much love. She spoke no English but expressed volumes of information in her actions. We were not accustomed to the big love your Mom/Grandma had in her heart. I was a young girl but, I learned that day, that was how I wanted to love my children and their children. She was a wonderful teacher to me and I am so grateful for her lesson. I am sorry I didn't stay in touch with her beautiful spirit. I am quite certain, she is dancing with the angels. I will be with your family in thought and prayer since I live in Lansing and have prior commitments. Love and strength to all 🥺💕
