“ Juanita was one of my dear friends Cindy ‘s mom. Cindy was taken from us way too young. I think of her often and miss her loving spirit. Juanita was a tuff cookie at times but she kept Cindy and her siblings on the right track. Rest in peace

“ How do you share 77 years of memories? Nita was a very large part of my life. Starting out as my babysitter and winding up as the matriarch of our family. Our families were so close, that we were more like siblings than cousins. We shared holidays, picnics and even a home for a short time in the early 70's. When sisters marry cousins it's practically one family. I will miss her and one day see her again when our Lord calls me home too.
Love, Mike

“ To my dad, aunts and cousins I am so sorry to hear of the passing of my dear aunt. My heart hurts for you all. Have so many fond memories of this lady, now I'm not saying she didn't have to straighten me and Cindy out a few times for our antics in our younger years though. Fly high auntie. Love you.
