“ Brandon, Karlie & Trevor, I worked with your mom for many years. She was so very nice and a happy person. She was most excited to talk about you kids and all the things she would do with you at school. Her eyes would light up everytime she spoke of her children. You were her world. She especially loved to make Christmas and your birthdays ever so special. Even though she is not here with you now, know that in the place where God has taken your precious mom, she will always hold you dear and near in her heart. She will always watch over you from heaven. God bless your family with strength and love to help you through this difficult time. May you treasure the memories you have of your loving mom and be pillars for one another in the future. She was so proud of each of you. Sincerely sorry for this loss. Bless you all.

“ We are so sorry this has happened to Karen. It just doesn't seem fair. After the kids grow up and get married, they start there own lives. We do not hang out as a family, like we did when they were children. But, because we did not see her often, does not mean we did not love her. She will always be in our prayers. We will never forget her. She is now home. all the pain and suffering she went through here on earth has earned her a front row seat in heaven. We are sure she is looking down on us smiling, and hugging her dad. May she rest in peace.

“ I am very sad, and sorry to hear about Karens passing. I know she was tough and fought her battles head on. She is now at Peace with her Dad and those who have passed on before her. Rose, my heart goes out to you. You should never have to do this for a child. I love you all, and to Tim and Kids, your in my heart and prayers, and if there is anything I can do to help, please let me know. Your Mom was a couragous woman, and fought with all her will. You will all need to lean on each other. God Bless you!! God received another Angel in Heaven!! R.I.P Karen!
